The Father Ferdinand Helias Museum was founded in 1983 by the foresight and efforts of then pastor, Father John Condit and several parishioners. As the parish celebrated the sesquicentennial of its founding, there grew an interest in looking back and preserving our roots. This museum is dedicated to Father Helias and all the men and women who sacrificed so much for our parish.

The museum houses a collection of memorabilia from the founding of communities in Central Missouri, as well as personal effects of the man who first brought the faith to this area, Father Helias.

Group Tours of our parish church and museum may be arranged by contacting the parish office at 7319 Route M, Jefferson City, Missouri 65101, Phone: (573) 395-4401
