19th Sunday in Ordinary Time

A man at my parish was struggling to overcome a habitual sin. He said to me, "Father, I know the chance that I will commit sin again is really high. Why should I keep confessing my sins? Isn't that dishonest?" Anyone who has felt the tyrannical power of sin — and who hasn't? — has pondered this kind of question.

I responded to him, "What was the probability Peter would walk on the stormy water?" After some silence, he said, "Zero. But when Jesus called, he did it." I could tell my penitent friend was re-framing the question from his own weakness to the greatness of the Lord's love for him. The question for us should not be one of human probabilities about our sin, but rather whether or not we will trust the Lord's grace in our lives.

This week the Lord is calling you and me to do the impossible: overcome sin with love. The only way to do that is to trust he is calling, and then to walk with the eyes of faith locked on him. And if we sink, he will raise us up again and again. Of that, we can be 100% sure. — Father John Muir ©LPi

*Father in heaven,
all creation rightly gives you praise,
for all life and all holiness
come from you.
In the plan of your wisdom
she who bore the Christ
in her womb
was raised body and soul in glory
to be with him in heaven.
May we follow her example in reflecting your holiness and join in her hymn of endless love and praise.*

We ask this through Christ our Lord.

COCOMO LIVING FLAME 1 PROGRAM

The Living Flame Program is a seven session offering of in-depth spiritual study and enrichment, presented over a seven month period. It is designed to heighten the awareness of the dynamics of Centering Prayer in the context of the spiritual journey.

This extraordinary program for Contemplative Outreach chapters and groups includes seven full-day offerings of in-depth spiritual study:

Each session is presented on Zoom in a retreat-like format. The program includes: two periods of Centering Prayer, two presentation periods and small group sharing along with personal and lunch breaks. This hybrid offering is for small groups gathered in community, or for individuals in their homes.

An established Centering Prayer practice and familiarity with the books of Father Thomas Keating, particularly Open Mind, Open Heart will allow full participation.

A Message from Father Matt:

This hybrid approach to the Living Flame program makes it possible for the contemplative community around the state of MO to participate and bond in Spirit, while the presenter and program are being zoomed into in-person group meetings or individuals homes ... all of which now makes this program very practical, flexible and affordable.

I think the Living Flame Program is a masterful offering for those who are seriously drawn to a life of contemplation ... that, and the daily practice of CP.

Men of the Jefferson City Area: You are invited to the August gathering of the Men of Signum Crucis, which begins at 6:30 p.m.

Wednesday, August 16, in the St. Pius X Chapel at Helias Catholic High School. Feel free to come early to pray the Rosary at 6:00 p.m.

The Study/Devotion portion of our evening will be led by recent college graduate Jacob Ceglenski on the history of and devotion to the Brown Scapular.

Following the presentation, we will move to the Helias Commons for fraternity while we enjoy refreshments. As always, our evening will conclude with the Litany of St. Joseph at 7:55 p.m.

In September, we will follow up with an enrollment ceremony for all men who plan to maintain the disciplines of the Brown Scapular as prescribed by the Blessed Virgin Mary. This ceremony will take place in conjunction with the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the St. Pius X Chapel at Helias Catholic.

We especially encourage men to bring sons or fathers—since many sons are home from school during these summer months, these monthly gatherings are a great opportunity to bring your son (or grandson) with you.

The mission of the Men of Signum Crucis is to provide Fraternity through Study, Devotion, and Service to sharpen ourselves to meet the challenges of our day.

For more information, contact Ken Sandbothe at 573-644-4088, or visit us at www.menofsignumcrucis.com.
