THE TRANSFIGURATION OF THE LORD

Jesus took Peter, James, and his brother, John, and led them up a high mountain by themselves. And he was transfigured before them; his face shone like the sun and his clothes became white as light. - Mt 17:1-2

The Transfiguration of the Lord

What is Christianity finally about? These days if you ask almost anyone who doesn't know the Bible you'll probably hear an answer like this: "Being a good person" or "following the golden rule." No offense to the golden rule, but our faith is simply much stranger than that. This week's feast of the Transfiguration of the Lord is a luminous example of this. Jesus becomes radiantly and overwhelmingly beautiful. The glory of God literally shines forth from his body and even his clothes. Here we see that Christianity is not mainly a moral system, but a relationship with God in Christ, one that finally makes human beings gloriously beautiful.

Now we can see our good and bad deeds in a new and de-centered way. Our morality isn't about a heaven or hell scorecard. It's about lives open (or closed) to transfiguration, lives capable of revealing the glory of God in Christ to the world. Spouses, children, friends, co-workers, priests, consecrated women and men, and so on — we are all called to let the beauty of Jesus make our lives beautiful, little by little. His beauty in us is the center of our faith.

— Father John Muir ©LPi

Those wishing to give a gift may donate in Bishop Gaydos's honor to Catholic Charities of Central and Northern Missouri (cccnmo.diojeffcity.org/gaydos or PO Box 104626, Jefferson City, MO 65110-4626).

If you already made a gift ahead of last year's postponed celebration, there is no need to give twice.

Prayer for Rain

O God, our Creator, you are the source of all life. It is through your divine providence and infinite power that the wonder and splendour of all creation surround us: "How majestic is your name in all the earth."

We pray to you who calms the raging waters and commands the wind, to provide us with sufficient rain to meet our needs.

During this time of drought, we are mindful of our dependence on you for all that sustains us, body and soul.

We pray for the cooling, gentle rain that will once again bring life to the fields and crops that feed us, restore the colourful rainbow of flowers and the shade of trees.

We also pray for all those who are suffering from other natural disasters. May they look to you for the strength to restore their lives and heal their wounded lands.

Help us to always be good stewards of your creation and care for the many resources of this earth.

May your grace refresh our souls.

We ask for these blessings through the intercession of Mary, Queen of Heaven and Earth.

Amen.

We are looking for Parishioners to give a portion of their Time and Talent to assist in the building of our Church Ministers. Please pray on this because we are in need of some more help participating in our ministries at church, such as Eucharistic Minister, Liturgical Minister, Usher, and Musician. You do not have to do it every weekend and Lisa will work around your schedule. We have scheduled a training for Aug. 23 for all minister's (new & returning).

The breakdown is as follows; Ushers (6-6:30p.m.), Lectors (6:45-7:15p.m.), and Eucharistic Minister (7:30-8p.m.). You can participate in more than one training.

Commissioning for all Eucharistic Ministers will take place the weekend of Sept. 16 & 17. Please encourage friends and family to consider taking part in these ministries. Contact Laurie at the parish office if you're interested (573-395-4401).

Holy Communion

We are excited to once again start offering communion under both species at the weekend masses.

This will begin after the commissioning of The Extraordinary Minister of Communion In September.

COLOR

Read the Gospel of the week and color the image.

Transfiguration of the Lord • Matthew 17:1-19

GOSPEL

Previews give us a quick peek at a movie, in hopes that we will want to see more. In today's Gospel, we celebrate Jesus' Transfiguration. That's when God gave Peter, James and John a preview of the risen Jesus, the Jesus they would see again one day. Jesus glowed brightly. Moses and Elijah came to talk with Jesus. Then a great cloud covered everyone, and God said Jesus was his Son. Jesus was the Savior that God's people had been waiting for.

PRAYER

Dear God, thank you for showing us through your Word that Jesus is our Savior. Amen.

"We were made by God to be like God and to be with God. The Ten Commandments were God's first great expression of what being like God looks like for us."

Men of the Jefferson City Area: You are invited to the August gathering of the Men of Signum Crucis, which begins at 6:30 p.m. Wednesday, August 16, in the St. Pius X Chapel at Helias Catholic High School. Feel free to come early to pray the Rosary at 6:00 p.m.

The Study/Devotion portion of our evening will be led by recent college graduate Jacob Ceglenski on the history of and devotion to the Brown Scapular.

Following the presentation, we will move to the Helias Commons for fraternity while we enjoy refreshments. As always, our evening will conclude with the Litany of St. Joseph at 7:55 p.m.

In September, we will follow up with an enrollment ceremony for all men who plan to maintain the disciplines of the Brown Scapular as prescribed by the Blessed Virgin Mary. This ceremony will take place in conjunction with the celebration of the Holy Sacrifice of the Mass in the St. Pius X Chapel at Helias Catholic.

We especially encourage men to bring sons or fathers—since many sons are home from school during these summer months, these monthly gatherings are a great opportunity to bring your son (or grandson) with you.

The mission of the Men of Signum Crucis is to provide Fraternity through Study, Devotion, and Service to sharpen ourselves to meet the challenges of our day.

For more information, contact Ken Sandbothe at 573-644-4088, or visit us at www.menofsignumcrucis.com.

The Osage Senior Center, located in Wardsville, MO, is looking for interested seniors to fill possible vacancies and/or be placed on our waitlist for USDA or MHDC units.
