HONORING OUR PAST

A MOMENT IN ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH HISTORY

The Pastorate of Rev. William Flanagan 1970-1977

Father William Flanagan was born in Ireland and ordained to the priesthood in June 1964. He served as the associate pastor of several central Missouri parishes before he was assigned to our parish. These parishes included: St. Pius X - Moberly, St. Peters, Jefferson City, and SS Peter and Paul, Boonville. Below are some of the highlights that happened during Father Flanagan's time at SFX.

- A new Parish Council form of organization was initiated and took the place of the Board of Trustees.
- A principal's office was added to the school along with the continual upgrading of parish facilities.
- The newly formed Parish Council formed a committee to investigate the pros and cons of incorporating the City of Taos. With a lot of interest from the community, the City was incorporated and the first election took place on April 3, 1973.
- The first Parish Pictorial Directory was published in 1973.
- New doors were installed on the church which replaced the old wooden ones.
- The choir loft was raised, giving it an auditorium-like feel.
- In 1974, the interior of the church was repainted and the sanctuary was carpeted. The labor for these improvements was donated by the parishioners.
- Also in 1974, a celebration took place on Sept. 29th commemorating the centennial of Father Helias' death. A Centennial book was published, highlighting the life of our great founder and the history of our parish. A marble slab in memory of Fr. Helias was erected in the church yard. It was placed at this site because many believe that is where the church bell was located that Fr. Helias rang several times a day to pray the Angelus. When the 6pm bell didn't ring, on that fateful day, some parishioners went to check on him. They found him dead outside of his residence presumably on his way to ring the bell. He died on August 11, 1874. This coming August will be the 150th anniversary of his death.
- A new gymnasium was erected in 1975, which was also constructed with volunteer help from our parishioners.
- A new Reconciliation room in the church was completed in 1976.
- The Parish took part in the Jefferson City Bicentennial Parade by entering a float sponsored by the CYO. The float depicted a replica of our first log church. The late Tom Verslues, a young teen at the time, posed as Fr. Helias.
- In July of 1977, Father Flanagan was transferred to SSPeter and Paul Church in Boonville. The priest stationed at Boonville became the new SFX pastor. His name was Father John Condit.
- Fr. Flanagan passed away in 2014 at the age of 83. We are grateful for this Irish born priest who served so selflessly in our diocese for 50 years.
