The family of Betty Stegeman would like to express a heartfelt thank you to the wonderful people of Taos for their generosity in giving their precious time to organize the meal, work in the kitchen and set up the hall. Thank you to all of the people who brought food for the funeral lunch. Thank you to Rev. Kelechi Uzuegbu for administering The Last Rites, and both he and Deacon Michael Berendzen for the beautiful service, everyone who participated in the funeral service, the pianist & Adult Choir, as well as the parish staff for their assistance with the program and music. Mom had been away from the St. Francis Xavier Parish for several years, and all of you welcomed her and our family with open arms. Your kindness will never be forgotten. The Stegeman Family

The Epiphany of the Lord: A stranger in a foreign land, I was exhausted and homesick as my summer Spanish immersion ended in Guatemala. The rusty minivan arriving outside my small residence filled me with joyful hope. I was flying home to the U.S. and would be, at long last, completely happy. Or so I thought. After about half an hour of being home, I thought to myself, "This place is boring. I want to go somewhere." So, I hopped in my car and left to see my friends. As I drove, I wistfully wondered, "Where am I truly at home?"

The feast of Epiphany has a lot to do with our notion of home. Where is our origin? Where are we going? When is our wandering done? Saint Matthew tells us of the Magi, "They were overjoyed at seeing the star." This star will bring them home, to a place where their questing will end, and they will be satisfied. Their real home is neither in the East nor in the earthly Jerusalem. Somehow, their home is wherever this boy and his parents are.

If you're a teenager or older, you probably know by now that every physical home we have is temporary. So, we look up at the countless stars in our proverbial skies: things which bedazzle and beckon us to follow toward peace. The Gospel invites us to behold that — at long last — God has sent us a star to follow home, one that whispers, "Follow me! I will take you home!" Perhaps that star is your spouse. A friend. An opportunity. A cause. An intuition about a new direction. A prayer group. What is it for you? How will you know? It will lead you to Mary and Joseph and their son, and you will be home. — Father John Muir ©LPi

As we welcome 2024, let us embrace the new things the Lord has in store, trusting in His guidance and provision even in unexpected places.

"Behold, I am doing a new thing; now it springs forth, do you not perceive it? I will make a way in the wilderness and rivers in the desert." - Isaiah 43:19

PRAYER DURING COLD WEATHER

God Our Father, you set the earth on its foundations and all elements of nature obey your command. Help us in this time of trouble: calm the cold and wind that threaten us and turn our fear of your power into praise of your goodness. And guide us, all those we serve and those who serve us, in the days ahead. In your name we pray. Amen.

"God invites us to know Him in mysterious ways. What matters isn't that we grasp why. What matters is whether or not we say 'yes.' There's no more powerful way to do that than to turn to Him in the Eucharist."

Breaking the Silence of Abuse - As a diocese, we are committed to breaking the silence of abuse. When someone is reporting abuse, we must acknowledge their pain and how difficult it is to talk about it. False allegations are very rare. Our initial response to someone who is disclosing abuse for the first time must be compassionate. For those who need to report abuse, encourage them to contact our Victims Assistance Coordinator, Jacqueline Baldwin, (573-694-3199) and to make use of the appropriate State of Missouri hotline (1-800-392-3738) or the Attorney General's clergy abuse online form. All of this information is also on our website, under the 'report abuse' tab. For those who want information or want to convey a message to Bishop McKnight, please encourage them to write to us at reportabuse@diojeffcity.org.
