

A fisherman is shown from behind, pulling a large, golden-brown fishing net. The net is spread out across the water, and the background features a bright sunset or sunrise over a body of water with mountains in the distance. The overall color palette is warm, dominated by oranges, yellows, and browns.

3rd Sunday in Ordinary Time: We start telling lies around the age of three, the experts tell us. It's understandable. Lying is a god-like power. Whatever I want, I need only say it, and the world rearranges itself accordingly. It's amazing at first. But soon reality snaps back and I'm faced with a dilemma. If I remain committed to my lie I start to fracture into pieces. My words and reality drift apart, and I find myself lost in a lonely world of further falsehoods and fear of being found out.

How marvelous, then, that Jesus begins his ministry by proclaiming: "Repent!" We tend to think it means "stop doing bad things" but it doesn't. It literally means "go beyond the mind you have." Think in a new way. It's painful to admit, but some portion of my mind is addicted to lie-telling, usually to protect my ego or make life easier. To repent means to admit this tendency, to say, "I'm done lying," and to move beyond my split mind into a complete commitment to the truth. Perhaps that's why at Mass we together proclaim, "I have sinned in my thoughts, and in my words..." Repentance and truth-telling work together.

Those who know the twelve-step process of addiction recovery know this process well. The fourth step requires radical truth-telling: listing our moral defects. This isn't being scrupulous. Rather it is freedom from falsehood, and entrance into the real world. This week, I invite you to join me in this practice. Get your phone or piece of paper. Answer the question: what are your true moral defects? Write them down. Remember, the Lord knows them already and loves you. We have a sacrament where this truth-telling is celebrated: Confession. Perhaps it is finally time to go beyond our childish lies. — Father John Muir ©LPi

GOSPEL

Jesus will teach you to catch others for him. You can catch fish by putting food in front of them. People need soul food to be close to God. People want to go to heaven with God. Tell them that Jesus loves them and died on the cross for them. Tell them he wants everyone to do good. Then people will gladly come into his net. They will be at peace because Jesus will give them everything they need.

Lord, help me stay hooked on you.

CAPITAL CAMPAIGN NEWS

As many are aware, St. Francis Xavier is in the planning stages of a major capital campaign to repair and renovate our buildings and create additional meeting and storage space. To conduct a successful effort, we must assemble a strong volunteer team to reach out to parish families.

We are thankful that several members of the St. Francis Xavier community have agreed to help provide campaign leadership. The following parishioners said "yes" to an invitation from Fr. Kelechi to serve on our campaign committee: Deacon Mike Berendzen, Eric Bernskoetter, Josh Sandbothe, Linda Distler, Darren Heckman, Megan Prenger, Cindy Luebbering, Robin Bernskoetter and Wendy Sullivan.

In their role, the committee will oversee the effort and assist Fr. Kelechi in implementing a successful campaign. One of their first responsibilities is to recruit additional volunteers. Our committee members are reaching out to those who previously indicated a willingness to serve as a volunteer. If you would like to help, please email or call our Steier Group campaign manager, Joanna Gray. You may reach her at jgray@steiergroup.com or 636-699-6977. You can help make a difference for St. Francis Xavier Catholic Church and its future. Please consider lending your talent to this important cause!

St. Thomas K of C Pancake and Sausage Breakfast: January 21st, 8 -11:30 am, Adults ($10), Kids ($5), under 6 (Free). Serving pancakes, sausage, scrambled eggs, and biscuits.

Our Lady, Help of Christians Parish in Frankenstein: will be hosting a presentation by Gary Zimak entitled, "Give Up Worry for Lent" at 12:00 noon on Sunday, February 4th. Gary Zimak is a Catholic speaker, author, and radio host. Gary's presentation will be based on his book, Give Up Worry for Lent! 40 Days to Finding Peace in Christ. There is no cost to attend, but his books will be available to purchase. We hope you can join us for this unique, Catholic experience!
