6th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Recently I had a skin rash, and it was awful. (Please don't tell anyone.) I am embarrassed to admit that I didn't handle it well. Complaining, whining, begging for sympathy, and crying were my responses to the merciless itching and burning. In the aftermath, a silver lining emerged. I feel a new heartfelt sympathy for all those vexed with chronic skin problems. If you've ever had a seemingly unending skin problem, you know how that sympathy flows up from deep inside.

This gut-level compassion is something like what the Gospel describes in Jesus when the sore-covered leper says, "If you will it, you can make me clean." At this, just before the healing, Jesus was "moved with compassion." The Greek word used here is strong and earthy, closer to "his bowels and guts trembled with the deepest emotions of sadness, pity, and love." In Jesus, God heals our infirmities not from a divine distance but by learning what it feels like to be us. He acquires first-hand experience of what it costs us to be afflicted and still be faithful to God. He sympathizes with the burning, itching, and blistering of human existence in the deepest, first-hand way. To discover that is to touch Jesus' heart.

What in your life, right now, is breaking out like diseased skin? What is getting worse the more you try to soothe it? Perhaps only you feel it. Or maybe it's exposed to all. A bad habit, broken relationship, loneliness, fear of failure, self-hatred? Name it, and then find a way to bring it confidently to Jesus who will feel what we are feeling, and thereby heal us. — Father John Muir ©LPi

During Catholic Schools Week our school partnered up with other local schools in the diocese to support a mission in Nigeria. Our schools are raising money to help build a school in Uganda for children in need. Throughout the week our students brought in change and cash to donate to this cause. As a school we raised $4,000! Our students and school far exceeded what I thought we would bring in. Thank you to everyone who helped support this wonderful cause to help out some who are less fortunate than ourselves.

A reminder that we will have another opportunity this Sunday, February 11th from 9am-11am for any former S.F.X. graduate to place their thumbprint on the mural at school. Please stop by the school cafeteria this Sunday morning if you would like to leave your mark on the mural!

I want to thank each and every one of you who made my 93rd birthday a celebration to remember! I am still in awe of all the people who attended the open house, gave a gift or card (although it was not at all expected), sent a birthday card in the mail, called me or put a birthday wish for me on Facebook. I can't tell you how much all of this meant to me. I have always felt so fortunate to have the family and friends I have, and this day made me feel even more grateful.

Love you all, Sugie

HONORING OUR PAST

A MOMENT IN ST. FRANCIS XAVIER PARISH HISTORY

Since many of us have been parishioners for a long time, you may remember the years that I will be writing about in the next few months. Whether you were a child or an adult at the time, I hope these articles will bring back fond memories. If you were not part of SFX parish during those years, I hope you enjoy learning about these years of our parish history. Below are the highlights of all the achievements that came about during the years 1977-1987.

- Father John Condit became the pastor after Father William Flanagan. Father Condit remained as pastor until 1994 when he passed away from cancer.
- The involvement of the laity was an important part of these years in the administration of the parish, through the Parish Council and the School Board. The laity also became important in the liturgical sense as well, with many becoming lectors and lay ministers. As always, the parishioners took great pride in their parish and volunteered time, talent and money to the church and school.
- During these 10 years many improvements were made to the parish and school property.
- In 1978, the Radio Mass began and was broadcast from St. Francis Xavier Church each Sunday morning. This was a much needed benefit for those who were sick, elderly or were shut-in. It had an estimated listening audience of 5,000. Many favorable letters and cards were received expressing appreciation and support from both Catholics and Non-Catholics.
- Because of the increasing enrollment in the school, two new classrooms were added above the new gym which was built in 1975. The old gym became a social area and was renamed Helias Hall. The school restrooms and cafeteria were also updated.
- In 1978 the talk of a parochial kindergarten began to unfold and in the fall of 1979 the first class of Kindergarteners were enrolled with a total of 29 students.
- In 1983 a campaign was launched to raise money in part to prepare for a celebration in honor of the 100 anniversary of the building of our church as well as to make some needed renovations to the church and school. The Centennial Campaign Appeal set out to raise $300,000. That goal was reached by July, 1986.
- In early 1984, the church was completely renovated and redecorated with new Electrical and heating systems installed. A celebration Mass and a rededication was held on Sept. 16, 1984 to commemorate the 100 anniversary of the building of SFX Church.
- During 1985, an intercom system was installed in the principal's office so that all classrooms could be reached in case of emergencies etc. New storm windows and insulation were also installed.
- 1986 was a busy year as the church was tuck pointed and the roof was replaced. All of the parish property was asphalted and the sidewalks and steps were replaced. Asbestos was removed from much of the school and all parish buildings were given a coordinating coat of paint.
- Also in 1986 much needed improvements were made to the Cemetery. Old trees were removed and much needed landscaping was done. Many gravestones were leveled and repaired. A beautiful statue of Mary was added to the Cemetery to complete the beautification.
- All of these projects came to fruition because of the combined efforts of the Parish Council, School Board, Centennial Committee and the stewardship of the parishioners.
