Capital Campaign: When making Capital Campaign payments by check please be sure to show the payee as SFX Capital Campaign or clearly state in the memo line of the check that it is for capital campaign. If making payments by credit card for the capital campaign there are two separate "Donate Now" buttons on our website. Please be sure to choose the SFX Capital Campaign button if that's what the funds are for as this is a separate bank account. Also, if you need envelopes to make capital campaign payments, there are labeled envelopes at the entrance of school. Please use these for payments. That also helps to reduce the confusion. Thanks for your help.

13th Sunday in Ordinary Time

Sin isn't given its due these days. Downplaying sin is dangerous. But there is also another spiritual misstep in which we make way too big a deal out of sin. It happens, for example, when we persistently wonder if our confessed sins are "really" forgiven, or suspiciously ponder what God "really" thinks about us, behind His merciful face. Or when someone returns to Church, and we question whether his or her conversion was genuine. Or when we commit some sin and put on a sad face for days, thinking, "Maybe my sins are too great for God to deal with." God save us from that attitude!

Well, he does just that, this week, in the raising of Jairus' daughter. The dead twelve-year-old's house is filled with a spirit of excessive moaning and groaning, tumultuous weeping and wailing. They even laugh at Jesus in a mocking tone. It's shocking how easy it is for him to raise the dead child. It is equivalent to gently waking a kid from a light nap. And then he sends her off to get some lunch. No big whoop. The overactive drama is actually part of the problem, and removing it is a key part of the miracle.

Friends, sin can and does kill, but Jesus is always ready and able to raise us back to life, often without much hullabaloo. His ease of forgiving should never be a pretext for presumption, minimizing sin, or taking lightly the cost he pays for our sins on the cross. But for God's sake, we often need Jesus to put out the weepers and wailers. He's the Lord. And remember, the girl is not dead, she's just sleeping. — Father John Muir ©LPi

Religious Education

"Know also that you will probably gain more by praying fifteen minutes before the Blessed Sacrament than by all the other spiritual exercises of the day. True, Our Lord hears our prayers anywhere, for He has made the promise, 'Ask, and you shall receive,' but He has revealed to His servants that those who visit Him in the Blessed Sacrament will obtain a more abundant measure of grace."

Volunteers Needed for LifeTeen Meals

Every Sunday night at our LifeTeen program for high schoolers, teens share a meal together before engaging in the nights activities of fun, faith, and fellowship. We would like to invite our parishioners to volunteer to provide the meals on Sunday nights as a way for the parish to share Christ's love with our teens. If you would like to provide a meal for LifeTeen, please sign up by scanning the QR code below, or by emailing Abby to ststandre@ststan.net. Of course, your prayers for the teens and LifeTeen leaders are always appreciated as well! Thank you so much for supporting this ministry!

Change in procession plans for July 3

The procession that was scheduled on July 3rd at 3:30 p.m. from the North Jefferson Katy Trailhead to the Cathedral has been moved due to anticipated construction and extreme temperatures.

We will now meet at the Cathedral at 4:00 p.m. and process on the mile-long loop trail at Memorial Park.

The July 3 processions from Booneville to New Franklin and from the outskirts of Columbia to the Newman Center will continue as scheduled, weather permitting. Please RSVP to receive updates.

All Masses and "Worship With Us" events for July 3, including Adoration, talks, Confession and meals will continue as scheduled.

Thank You!

Thank you to all who attended, planned, set up, decorated, provided food, gave gifts, cards, played pickleball, and cleaned up at my 50th Birthday Party. It was a great day and I thank God for all of you.
